Board of Commissioners to Rescind COVID-19 State of Emergency

Princess Anne, Maryland - Following Governor Larry Hogan's June 15, 2021 announcement that Maryland will lift all COVID-19 related emergency mandates and restrictions effective July 1, 2021, Somerset County Government will also rescind the local State of Emergency.

During their Special Session meeting held on Tuesday, June 29, 2021, The Board of Commissioners for Somerset County signed a resolution ending the Declared State of Emergency in Somerset County effective 12:01 a.m. Thursday, July 1, 2021.
